from the Regional/National per capita availability of energy; and projected deficit of the State in absolute term i.e. million units as per annual power surveys of CEA; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF POWER (DR. S. VENUGOPALACHARI): (a) No, Sir. During the year 1995-96 Rajasthan was allotted a share of 7446 million units of energy out of a total net energy of 45044 million units supplied by Central Sector Stations in the Northern Region. Actual drawal by Rajasthan was more at 9639 million units. Rajasthan has made a request for revision in the present allocation formula of Central power to beneficiary States.

(b) and (c) The existing formula of sharing of power was finalised in consultation with States and is working satisfactory. However, Government is not averse to making changes in the formula and have initiated the process of inviting views of concerned parties on the issue.

CCS (Recognition of Service Associations) Rules, 1993

1838. SHRI GOVINDRAM MIRI:
SHRI PARAG CHALIHA:
SHRI SHIV CHARAN SINGH:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that with the promulgation of CCS (Recognition of Service Associations) Rules, 1993, the associations enjoying recognition then had been given ad hoc recognition under the 1993 Rules subject to the condition that the concerned association would fulfil all conditions, including verification of membership strength with one year;

(b) if so, whether some service associations of Ministries/Departments of Government of India have failed to fulfil the condition within one year; and

(c) if so, the details thereof and the provision under which the date has since been extended?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI S.R. BALASUBRAMONIYAN): (a) to (c) In terms of rule 4 of the Central Civil Services (Recognition of Service Associations) Rules, 1993, all service Associations/Federations which were recognised before notification of these rules on 5.11.93 were allowed to continue to be so recognised for a period of one year, which was later extended (by amendment of Rules) for six months upto 4.5.1995. As majority of such associations did not apply for recognition, fresh opportunity was given to apply by 30.6.1996, which has again been extended upto 31st October, 1996.
